I. Introduction

1. The Ad Hoc Committee on the Elaboration of a Convention against Transnational Organized Crime was established by the General Assembly in its resolution 53/111 of 9 December 1998.

2. In its resolution 54/126 of 17 December 1999, the General Assembly requested the Ad Hoc Committee to continue its work, in accordance with resolutions 53/111 and 53/114 of 9 December 1998, and to intensify its work in order to complete it in 2000.

II. Organization of the session

A. Opening of the session

3. The Ad Hoc Committee on the Elaboration of a Convention against Transnational Organized Crime held its eleventh session in Vienna from 2 to 28 October 2000, during which it held 51 meetings.

4. At its tenth session, held in Vienna from 17 to 28 July 2000, the Ad Hoc Committee had approved the draft United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime (A/AC.254/36) for submission to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session for adoption in accordance with Assembly resolution 54/126 of 17 December 1999. The Ad Hoc Committee had decided that its eleventh session would be devoted to the finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition, the additional international legal instrument against trafficking in persons, especially women and children, and the additional international legal instrument against illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants for submission to the Assembly at its fifty-fifth session for adoption in accordance with resolution 54/126.

5. At the ninth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, the Chairman had requested all regional groups to appoint representatives to form a group that would be asked, at the tenth session of the Ad Hoc Committee, to ensure the consistency of the text in all the official languages of the United Nations.

6. The Secretary recalled that the composition of the consistency group was the following: the representatives of Cameroon, Egypt, Morocco, Nigeria and South Africa, appointed by the Group of African States; the representatives of China, India, Japan and Jordan, appointed by the Group of Asian and Pacific States; the representatives of the Russian Federation and Slovakia, appointed by the Group of Eastern European States; the representatives of Colombia, Cuba, Guatemala and Mexico, appointed by the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States; and the representatives of France, Italy, Spain and the United States of America, appointed by the Group of Western European and Other States. The Secretary also informed the Ad Hoc Committee that the consistency group would continue to be assisted in its work by editors, by translators from the translation section for each official language and by a member of the secretariat of the Ad Hoc Committee.

7. The Chairman asked the consistency group to review the concordance among the three draft protocols and the draft United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, as approved by the Ad Hoc Committee at its tenth session, in addition to ensuring the consistency of the texts of the draft protocols in all the official languages of the United Nations. The Chairman requested the representative of Mexico to continue to act as coordinator of the consistency group.

B. Attendance

8. The eleventh session of the Ad Hoc Committee was attended by representatives of 121 States. Also attending the eleventh session were observers for organizations of the United Nations system, institutes of the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Programme network, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations. A list of participants is contained in annex I to the present report.

C. Adoption of the agenda and organization of work

9. At its 178th meeting, on 2 October 2000, the Ad Hoc Committee adopted the following agenda for its eleventh session:

1. Opening of the eleventh session of the Ad Hoc Committee.
2. Adoption of the agenda and organization of work.
3. Finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against trafficking in persons, especially women and children.
4. Finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants.
5. Finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition.
6. Concordance among the three additional international legal instruments and with the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, as approved by the Ad Hoc Committee at its tenth session.
7. Draft resolution on the adoption of the Convention and the Protocols thereto for consideration and action by the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session: amendments required for the adoption of the Protocols.
8. Adoption of the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session.

D. Documentation

10. At its eleventh session, the Ad Hoc Committee had before it, in addition to the documents prepared by the Secretariat, documents containing proposals and contributions submitted by the Governments of Argentina, Australia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Belgium, Bolivia, Cameroon, Canada, China, Colombia, Cuba, France, Germany, the Holy See, India, Italy, Japan, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Lithuania, Malawi, Mexico, Morocco, the Netherlands, Norway, the Philippines, Swaziland, Sweden, Switzerland, the Syrian Arab Republic, Thailand, Turkey, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States, and by the European Community. A list of documents is contained in annex II to the present report.

III. Finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against trafficking in persons, especially women and children

11. At its 178th-190th, 217th and 218th meetings, on 2 to 6 and 23 October, the Ad Hoc Committee considered and finalized all the articles of the draft Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime. It based its work on a revised text of the draft Protocol (A/AC.254/4/Add.3/Rev.7) and on proposals and contributions submitted by Governments (A/AC.254/5/Add.28, A/AC.254/5/Add.29, A/AC.254/5/Add.31-33, A/AC.254/5/Add.36, A/AC.254/L.235, A/AC.254/L.239-241, A/AC.254/L.244, A/AC.254/L.251 and A/AC.254/L.252). The Ad Hoc Committee also had before it revisions of and amendments to the draft Protocol prepared by informal working groups at the request of the Chairman (A/AC.254/L.238, A/AC.254/L.243 and A/AC.254/L.248).

12. The representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session indicate that his country had joined the consensus on article 3, subparagraph (a), of the Protocol, but had registered its reservation regarding the inclusion of the expression "exploitation of the prostitution of others". That reservation was due to inconsistency with its domestic law.

13. The representative of the United Arab Emirates requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect its position on article 7, paragraph 1, of the Protocol, namely, that it considered itself not bound to provide the right of residence referred to at the end of that article.

14. The representative of the United Kingdom stated that his country had joined the consensus on article 3, subparagraph (b), but reserved the right to make an interpretative statement at the time of signing the Protocol.

15. The representative of Japan requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect his view that the travaux préparatoires on article 1 of the draft Protocol should indicate that there were some provisions of the Convention that would not be applicable to the Protocol. Examples of such provisions, at a minimum, were article 3 of the Convention, since article 4 of the Protocol provided otherwise; article 5 of the Convention, since article 5, paragraph 2, of the Protocol provided otherwise; articles 8 and 9 of the Convention, since it was absolutely unnecessary to have those articles apply to the Protocol; and articles 35-41 of the Convention, since articles 15-20 of the Protocol provided otherwise.

16. At its 218th meeting, on 23 October, the Ad Hoc Committee approved the draft Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, and decided to submit it to the General Assembly for consideration and action at its fifty-fifth session, in accordance with resolution 54/126.

IV. Finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against illegal trafficking in and transporting of migrants

17. At its 191st-203rd and 219th-222nd meetings, on 9 to 13 and 24 October, the Ad Hoc Committee considered and finalized all the articles of the draft Protocol against the Smuggling of Migrants by Land, Sea and Air, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime. It based its work on a revised text of the draft Protocol (A/AC.254/4/Add.1/Rev.6) and on proposals and contributions submitted by Governments (A/AC.254/5/Add.27, A/AC.254/5/Add.34, A/AC.254/5/Add.35, A/AC.254/5/Add.37, A/AC.254/5/Add.38, A/AC.254/L.236, A/AC.254/L.237 and Corr.1 and A/AC.254/L.246). The Ad Hoc Committee also had before it revisions of and amendments to the draft Protocol prepared by informal working groups at the request of the Chairman (A/AC.254/L.255, A/AC.254/L.258 and A/AC.254/L.261).

18. The representative of Azerbaijan requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session indicate that his country reserved the right to make an interpretative statement or reservation regarding article 5 of the Protocol.

19. The representative of Pakistan requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect that her country had joined the consensus on article 6, paragraph 1, of the Protocol, but understood that the offences established in accordance with that paragraph implied the involvement of an organized criminal group.

20. The representatives of Denmark and Norway indicated that their countries reserved the right to make an interpretative statement at the time of signing the Protocol regarding article 6, paragraph 3, of the Protocol, in connection with a technical matter related to their penal systems.

21. The representative of Turkey requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect that country's understanding that the references to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Seal in the interpretative notes to article 7 of the Protocol for the travaux préparatoires neither prejudiced nor affected the position of Turkey concerning that Convention.

22. The representative of Denmark requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect the position of his country in relation to article 8, paragraph 2, of the Protocol. According to Danish constitutional law, a State Party wishing to take appropriate measures in accordance with that paragraph with regard to vessels of Danish nationality or registry would have to request authorization from Denmark and could not act of its own accord. Denmark indicated that it would examine such requests on a case-by-case basis.

23. The representative of Canada indicated that his country, according to current practice, did not authorize another State to board a vessel of Canadian nationality or registry. However, upon request under the Protocol, Canada undertook not to object to such action, provided that the action taken was consistent with the Protocol.

24. The representative of Spain requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect its understanding concerning article 8, paragraph 6, namely, that the authorities mentioned therein were central authorities.

25. The representative of Bangladesh requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect the position of his country on article 16, paragraph 5. In the view of the representative, that paragraph was overly restrictive. The obligation to inform smuggled migrants of consular access rights should have been expanded to create a further right to be informed of other rights set forth in the article. The representative also expressed concern that, by referring to the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations,[2] the paragraph would not apply to States Parties to the Protocol that had not ratified or acceded to that Convention.

26. The representative of Japan requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect his view that the travaux préparatoires on article 1 of the Protocol should indicate that there were some provisions of the Convention that would not be applicable to the Protocol. Examples of such provisions, at a minimum, were article 3 of the Convention, since article 4 of the Protocol provided otherwise; article 5 of the Convention, since article 6, paragraph 2, of the Protocol provided otherwise; articles 8 and 9 of the Convention, since it was absolutely unnecessary to have those articles apply to the Protocol; and articles 35-41 of the Convention, since articles 20-25 of the Protocol provided otherwise. The representative of Japan also requested that the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session reflect his view that the travaux préparatoires should indicate that, in the application of paragraph 3 of article 15 of the Convention, States Parties should not be obliged to establish their jurisdiction under that provision over the offences established in accordance with article 6 of the Protocol.

27. At its 222nd meeting, on 24 October, the Ad Hoc Committee approved the draft Protocol against the Smuggling of Migrants by Land, Sea and Air, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, and decided to submit it to the General Assembly for consideration and action at its fifty-fifth session in accordance with resolution 54/126.

V. Finalization and approval of the additional international legal instrument against illicit manufacturing of and trafficking in firearms, their parts and components and ammunition

28. At its 204th-216th and 223rd-229th meetings, on 16-20, 25, 27 and 28 October, the Ad Hoc Committee considered all the articles of the draft Protocol against the Illicit Manufacturing of and Trafficking in Firearms, Their Parts and Components and Ammunition, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime. It based its work on a revised text of the draft Protocol (A/AC.254/4/Add.2/Rev.5) and on proposals and contributions

submitted by Governments (A/AC.254/5/Add.30, A/AC.254/L.242 and Corr.1, A/AC.254/L.247, A/AC.254/L.256, A/AC.254/L.257, A/AC.254/L.259, A/AC.254/L.263-265 and A/AC.254/L.270) and by the European Commission (A/AC.254/L.260). The Ad Hoc Committee also had before it revisions of and amendments to the draft Protocol prepared by informal working groups at the request of the Chairman (A/AC.254/L.266-268), a proposal of the Vice-Chairman (A/AC.254/L.271) and a proposal of the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee.[3]

29. At the 204th meeting of the Ad Hoc Committee, on 16 October, the representative of France, speaking on behalf of the States members of the European Union that are Members of the United Nations, informed the Ad Hoc Committee that the European Commission had been mandated by the Council of the European Union to negotiate articles 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 18 bis of the draft Protocol on behalf of all 15 States members of the European Community. The Chairman stated that the Ad Hoc Committee would take note of that statement on the understanding that the mandate would not affect the observer status of the European Commission.

30. In an effort to achieve consensus that would permit the finalization and approval of the draft Protocol, the Ad Hoc Committee extended its eleventh session by holding an additional meeting on 28 October. In spite of the fact that it came very close to achieving the necessary consensus, it was unable to complete its work in relation to the draft Protocol. Consequently, the Ad Hoc Committee decided to include in the draft resolution it was submitting to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session for consideration and action two paragraphs in which the Assembly would note that the Ad Hoc Committee had not completed its work on the draft Protocol and would request it to finalize such work as soon as possible. In that connection, many delegations emphasized the importance of the finalization of the draft Protocol prior to the Conference on Small Arms and Light Weapons, scheduled for 2001. The Ad Hoc Committee proposed the inclusion of the phrase "as soon as possible" on the understanding that every effort should be made to finalize the draft Protocol by early 2001, but deemed it appropriate to leave to the Assembly the decision of whether to include a more specific deadline.

VI. Concordance among the three additional international legal instruments and with the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, as approved by the Ad Hoc Committee at its tenth session

31. The consistency group met regularly during the eleventh session and reviewed the text of each draft Protocol as it was finalized by the Ad Hoc Committee. In addition, the group reviewed the concordance of the three draft Protocols with the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, as approved by the Ad Hoc Committee at its tenth session, in accordance with the request of the Chairman. The recommendations of the consistency group were incorporated into the final text of the draft Protocols and submitted to the Ad Hoc Committee for consideration. The Ad Hoc Committee had before it proposals submitted by France on the matter (A/AC.254/5/Add.39 and A/AC.254/L.245), by an informal working group at the request of the Chairperson (A/AC.254/L.249) and by the Chairperson (A/AC.254/L.253).

VII. Draft resolution on the adoption of the Convention and the Protocols thereto for consideration and action by the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session: amendments required for the adoption of the Protocols

32. At its 228th meeting, on 27 October, the Ad Hoc Committee finalized the draft resolution provisionally approved by it at its tenth session (A/AC.254/L.230/Add.3), for submission to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session for consideration and action.

VIII. Adoption of the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its eleventh session

33. At its 228th meeting, on 27 October, the Ad Hoc Committee adopted the report on its eleventh session (A/AC.254/L.250 and Adds.1 and Rev.1, 2, 3 and Rev.1, 4 and 5).[4]

34. At the same meeting, the Ad Hoc Committee approved its report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session (A/AC.254/L.272).[5]
